

Academic Records Verification and Delivery

Easy, Reliable Document Delivery for You and Your Applicants

With CertiFile, your U.S. and international applicants simply request their official, verified transcripts and other academic documents from external sources directly through their Eazel® application forms or their status pages.

Get Official Records You Can Trust

CertiFile partners with officially recognized credential verification services that enable international as well as U.S. applicants to order their verified academic documents. Our network of credential verification services includes:

Save Time and Resources with Organized Record Keeping

Verified documents are automatically imported into your Admit application evaluation system and matched with the corresponding students' application forms. No manual entry or collating! Import files as PDFs directly into your SIS or imaging systems, if you chose.

One Service Delivers All Verified Documents:

- Secondary Education qualifications
- Gaokao scores and other international student exam results
- High school diplomas, including international Baccalaureate and other certificates
- Degree certificates and diplomas
- Higher Education records and transcripts
- Higher Education degree certificate verification

Affordable and Convenient for Students

Students pay just once for their requested documents. Once ordered, officially verified documents are stored securely for applicants to access and forward whenever they need them.
